Clinical Education Experience Location and Timeline Expectations for Programs in the Covey College of Allied Health Professions

Additionally, students may choose inical site that is outside of the area designated as geographically accessibe because the softens a unique experience and or is geographically located in an area desirated to tudent. In such cases, approval of the site and supervisor must be gained from the students director of clinical education clinical coordinator field we know that is outside of the area designated as geographically accessible because the softens a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique experience and or is geographically accessible because the softens are a unique exper date of this experience may be delayed to the requirements of the clinical site.

Programs in the Covey College of Allieadth Professions that include clinical education components are in compliance ith the Department of Education Financial Responsibility, Administrative Capablity, Certification Procedures, Abity to Benefit rule (It ) you have questions abut this rule and or the compliance of the program ith this rule, please repout to your Department Chair.